SACRAMENTO, CAL., December 1.—Gold bullion to the amount of $60,000 was obtained by bandits, armed with sawed-off shot guns, who held up the Argonaut mine at Jackson, Amador county, last night, according to a report to the Sacramento police department today.

SIX KILLED IN TRAIN COLLISION IN WEST

PORTLAND, OREGON, December 1.—Six persons were killed in a head-on collision early today between the east bound Portland-Spokane limited, and west bound Oregon-Washington limited trains of the Oregon-Washington Railroad and Navigation Company, two miles east of Celilo.

Twenty-two persons were injured. Among the dead was A. H. McBride, a marine, who was guarding the mail on one of the trains. The others who were killed included two trainmen and three Oregon passengers.

NEW WORKING RULES FOR 400,000 RAILROAD SHOPMEN HANDED DOWN BY BOARD

CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—(By the Associated Press)—New working rules for the 400,000 railroad shopmen, including at least two important changes, were handed down today by the United States railroad labor board. This decision supplanted the agreement entered into by the shopmen and the United States railroad administration September 20, 1919.

The rules were passed unanimously by the board, including the vote of A. O. Wharton, of the labor group, who cast a dissenting vote upon the last wage cut.

One of the most important changes was the permitting apprentices to do certain repair work formerly restricted to journeymen in that craft. Another change provided for representation of minorities in the presentation of grievances to meet the contention of the railroads that old national agreements practically forced a closed shop on the railroads.

It will result in an estimated annual payroll saving of $50,000,000 to the railroads and form the basis upon which adjudication of all future wage disputes between railroads and their shopmen.

Delicate Situation Created By Japs' Naval Demand

TO VISIT THE TROGLODYTES

Lady Dorothy Mills, daughter of the Earl of Oxford, will soon be entertained by the Trogodytes. No, the Trogodytes are not members of a fashionable London set. In fact, little is known about them. They are a tribe inhabiting the Sahara Desert.

WASHINGTON, D. C., December 1.—(By the Associated Press)—The situation arising from Japan's formal proposal that the sixty percent naval ratio allotted her under the American limitation plan be increased to seventy percent was regarded by American officials today as a delicate one, but not without hope that her spokesmen ultimately would accept the original plan.

Entirely removed from the stage of technical discussion as to the basis of calculating the naval ratios on present fleet strength, the question today, through the formal request of Baron Admiral Kato, senior Japanese delegate, that the increased ratio be recognized as necessary to Japan's security, had become a matter of policy for settlement by the plenary delegates of the powers and not by their technical advisors. The proposal on this ground, it was known today, has been presented personally by Baron Kato to Secretary Hughes and Arthur J. Balfour, head of the British delegation, with the full support, it was said, of the Japanese government.

Regarding the argument of national security, the American delegates and experts, backed by the opinion of the British delegates, hold that its logical application would mean a reduction, rather than an increase in the naval ratio proposed for Japan, to which, it is known on authority, they are as strongly opposed on that basis as on the showing of existing fleet comparisons. With the sub-committee of experts of the "big three" naval powers at formal disagreement on adjourning yesterday as to the basis to be used for these comparisons, it was considered today that further progress could lay only in discussion between the American and Japanese delegates.

Dividing attention with the naval situation today was the first meeting of the representatives of China and Japan, with Secretary Hughes and Arthur J. Balfour as respective heads of the American and British groups, to lay a basis for negotiations looking to a settlement of the celebrated Shantung controversy. The Chinese announced after accepting the American and British offer of "good offices" in the controversy, that they were entering the discussions prepared to accept nothing less than unconditional withdrawal of Japanese claims in Shantung. In the absence of any definite indication, it was assumed that the Japanese spokesmen would contend for the reservations insisted on in the recent exchanges between Tokio and Peking.

Bladder Of Miss Rappe Showed Evidence Of Chronic Inflammation

Merger Of Steel Firms Is Planned

NEW YORK, December 1.—Reports that a merger of seven or more of the independent steel companies is contemplated were confirmed in the financial district today.

The proposed consolidation will take in all the leading producers and manufacturers with the exception of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation and the Jones and Laughlin Company, of Pittsburgh. The capitalization of the various companies concerned in the proposed consolidation approximates $500,000,000 and the products of the various companies cover almost every branch of the steel and iron industry.

The companies named comprise the Midvale Steel & Ordnance Co., the Republic Iron & Steel Co., Lackawanna Steel Co., Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co., Inland Steel Co., Brier Hill Steel Co., and the Steel & Tube Co. of America.

Reports of a consolidation have been current in the trade for more than a year.

This consolidation, if effected, will be second in importance to the United States Steel Corporation, now the dominant organization in the industry. The chief executive of one of the largest steel companies operating in the Ohio district today admitted that conferences were in progress for the purpose of consolidating the companies named.

Discussions have not proceeded beyond the general terms of the project it was said, and the more important details of plant valuation now would be taken up.

Two groups of bankers have been called into consultation to take up the financial phases of the proposition. One is a public man of international reputation and the other has recently been active in flotation of industrial and utility securities.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., December 1.—

A special medical commission's report that the bladder of Miss Virginia Rappe showed evidence of chronic inflammation and the presence of rupture, was submitted today in the manslaughter trial of Roscoe C. Arbuckle in connection with Miss Rappe's death. The defense contended that the bladder rupture which caused Miss Rappe's death was the climax of a chronic condition and not caused by external force applied by Arbuckle, as the prosecution alleged.

The prosecution was granted the privilege of examining the report. The commission was named by the court and counsel for both sides. The report was read by Dr. William Ophuls, who was named on the commission by the prosecution and who performed a postmortem examination on Miss Rappe's body.

The report "absolutely corroborates" the disposition of Dr. Maurice Rosenberg, of Chicago, who treated Miss Rappe supposedly for a bladder disorder in 1913, according to defense counsel.

"I don't understand the report," District Attorney Matthew Brady said. "The prosecution summoned Dr. Ophuls to take the stand at 2:00 p. m. and explain the report in detail. The prosecution announced that it would close finally with Dr. Ophuls' explanation and that Leo Friedman, assistant district attorney, would then make the first closing argument for the people."

TORSO OF CHILD FOUND IN BOILER

CHICAGO, December 1.—Following an all-night search for little Margaret Coughlin, three-years-old, her dismembered body was found today in a wash boiler in the home of Mrs. Ralph Pensis, 52 years old, a neighbor. Shortly afterward the body of Mrs. Pensis with her throat slashed by a butcher knife, was found on the second floor of the Pensis cottage. Police immediately began a search for Ralph Pensis, the woman's husband.

Police who called at the Pensis home, the last place the child was seen, found the doors locked this morning and could get no answer to their knocks. Finally they broke the door down and forced an entrance. In the basement they discovered the little girl's torso in the wash boiler sitting in a pile of paper which had been fired, but the flames had gone out.

Several feet away one leg wrapped in paper, was found in a cardboard box. The other leg was found later a block away from the house.

BLOODSHED IN IRELAND FACES THE BRITISH ISLES

LONDON, December 1.—(By the Associated Press)—The possibility of renewed bloodshed in Ireland stares the British Isles in the face in consequence of the virtual collapse of the peace negotiations which have proceeded under a truce for the last five months.

The Sinn Fein has stood firm on its demand for an all-Ireland parliament as the basis of settlement, at the same time refusing to concede allegiance to the British crown. Ulster has refused point blank to scrap her own parliament "under present conditions" on the ground that she will come directly under the control of the numerically superior south.

The latest plan, that for an all-Ireland parliament, under which Ulster might retain her existing rights until, or unless, she changed her mind, has failed with the formal statement by the Sinn Fein delegation here that it can not be considered.

As a result in both government and Irish circles, the opinion is expressed that nothing short of a miracle can avert collapse of the negotiations and resumption of the warfare in Ireland.

The government leaders are lending their entire efforts to seeking some unexplored avenue of negotiation, but it is believed all possibilities of settlement have been exhausted during the lengthy parleys which seem now to have ended.

As to how long the truce will last under present conditions there is no indication. The Sinn Feiners have expressed the view that there will be no formal denunciation of the pact by either side and this lends to the belief that any spark of combat set off in Ireland, with the peace movement apparently deadlocked, may start the conflagration anew.

Red Flag Is Hoisted In Vienna

VIENNA, December 1.—(By the Associated Press)—Rioting of a serious nature broke out in Vienna today following a great demonstration before the parliament building, where red flags were raised on improvised masts. The crowds then began smashing windows and looting shops dealing in articles of luxury.

Large crowds also attacked a number of fashionable hotels. The New Bristol was the first of these hostilities to be assaulted. Its great doors were battered down, thus permitting the crowds to pour through into the building. They began to break windows, some of which were as high as the third floor, and to hurl bedding and furniture into the mob crowded in the street below.

The old Bristol Hotel later suffered the same fate, its costly furniture and rich tapestries being looted out to the cheering crowds, which packed the streets surrounding the building.

The Grand Hotel, the largest in the city, and the Hotel Imperial, also were looted. The activities in these hotels, however, appeared to have been confined to the lower floors. The Vienna police were apparently helpless, many squads of them being seen standing quietly by as onlookers.

Scenes of plunder occurred throughout the city. Thousands of dollars' worth of plate glass was smashed until the principal streets looked like the track of a hurricane.

Authorities expressed belief that the disturbance was traceable to communist origin. It came very suddenly during a demonstration against the high cost of food, staged in front of the parliament building, in which many thousands joined.

The rapid rise in the price of food and clothing, the further depreciation of the crown in the exchange market, and the bitter cold weather, together with the government's announcement that food subsidies were to be abolished, are considered to have combined to provoke the extremist element to disorder.

The police for the first time in the many demonstrations that have occurred here, seemed to have failed utterly in the role of preservers of the peace, or else they were acting, it was assumed, under instructions from the authorities, who may have feared turning a riot that thus far has been bloodless, into a sanguinary affair.

Receivership For Germany As Bankrupt May Be Proposed By France

PARIS, December 1.—(By the Associated Press)—A receivership for Germany as a bankrupt, with an autonomous Rhineland to be exploited by the allies for reparation purposes, is likely to be proposed by France as an alternative to any moratorium on reparations that may be suggested by Great Britain. It was said in official circles here today.

The allies, it is held by French officials, have full authority under the terms of the treaty of Versailles to take Germany's affairs in hand and to administer her resources in a manner similar to that pursued by the Turkish debt commission.

Former President Poincare, who is much talked of as the probable successor of Premier Briand, in the next governmental change, recalls in his weekly review of the political situation that the treaty of Versailles gives the allies the right, in case Germany defaults to control her customs duties, taxes, exportations and coal production. It says this must be demanded if the reparations commission thinks it is obliged to give Germany further time.

The negotiations understood to be going on now in London between the British government and representatives from Germany are regarded in French official circles as a reprisal for the alleged separate action of France in making an agreement with the Turkish Nationalist government at Angor. Much anxiety is expressed lest France should find herself faced with a complete accord between Great Britain and Germany. French officials pointed out today that the question of reparations was above all a French question, and that Great Britain was interested only to the extent of twenty-two percent of the reparations, whereas France has claim to fifty-two percent of the German payments. Therefore, it was declared, any arrangement arrived at by Great Britain in the absence of French representatives would be resented.

The situation of the entente is regarded among French government officials as exceedingly precarious, in view of what they describe as nervousness shown by Great Britain and Italy.

GUILLOTINE SENTENCE FOR MODERN BLUEBEARD

VERSAILLES, December 1.—(By the Associated Press)—Henri Desire Landru, "the Bluebeard of Gambais," smiled last night for the first time since his trial opened. A flickering expression of amusement crossed his face as he listened to the words of Judge Gilber sending him to the guillotine for a series of the most heinous crimes in the history of French jurisprudence.

"Thank you, gentlemen," said Landru, flourishing his weather-beaten hat in a mocking bow to the jury as he disappeared through the little door leading to the Versailles jail.

While the verdict was awaited, the convicted slayer of ten women and a boy spoke words of encouragement to his counsel, M. Moro-Giafferi, who tried and worn out after his strenuous efforts to save his client from death, was on the verge of collapse. "Strange it is that a man standing in the shadow of death should console his defender," Landru remarked at one time to these sitting nearby.

He refused to be a party to a petition asking President Millerand to commute the sentence to life imprisonment, which was signed among others, by the jurors. "I refuse to ask for mercy," he told the latter. "A man like me wants justice, not mercy. You think I am guilty; then let me die."

His remarks after reaching the cell were also characteristic of this strange character, the record of whose deeds as unfolded in the dingy Versailles court room has drawn the attention of all France and of thousands of persons in other countries. "I have been a great show," he said. "I hope the public is satisfied. I give you a rendezvous for the end of February or the beginning of March to show you how an innocent man dies."

of the greatest crowds at and around the court room ever seen in Versailles. Picketets began operations in the press of the gathering while the jury was out and three men complained that their wallets had been taken.

"If the trial lasted another day, I would be unable to find a seat myself," Landru told the grandstand as he surveyed the throngs struggling to enter after the recess.

Landru seduced his women victims through promises of marriage. After luring them to his villa at Gambais, the prosecution charged that he killed them and disposed of the bodies by burning them in a small stove, after first cutting them into small pieces and crushing the skulls. The stove was one of the principal exhibits at the trial.

The motive ascribed to Landru was that of robbery, various entries in a note book being cited to prove that he kept account of the amounts derived from each crime. The victims were mostly married women with small properties, who had been separated from their husbands. The evidence was principally circumstantial, the only direct testimony being about a pound and a half of bones, some of the fragments of which were so small that they had to be viewed under the microscope.

DETROIT, MICH., December 1.—Two negroes and a white man arrested last night will be questioned in regard to the jewel robbery at the home of William Cooper Procter. A colored woman told the police, they say, that one of the men had displayed some jewelry. The men were searched and nothing was found that would tend to incriminate them. The men deny knowledge of the robbery of jewelry valued at from $50,000 to $100,000.

SHIP FIRM HEAD UNDER FIRE; FLEES THE COUNTRY

WASHINGTON, D. C., December 1.—The justice department was understood today to have asked the navy department to send a destroyer to intercept the French liner Paris and bring back Charles W. Morse, of New York, who is reported to have left the country in the face of a grand jury investigation of his ship contracts.

It was understood that a naval destroyer would put to sea from a French port within a few hours to intercept the Paris, which left New York last Friday.

While neither Attorney General Daugherty nor other justice department officials would discuss the reported departure, it was learned that every agency of the government would be used in effecting his return to this country. Immediately upon receipt of the report that Morse had left the country, the department was understood to have radioed the liner Paris to hold Morse for return to America.

While justice department officials would not discuss the sailing of Morse, there were indications that the full facilities of the department would be brought to bear upon his capture. Mr. Morse has had one of the most spectacular careers of any of the big figures in American finance.

For years a power in banking and shipping circles, he faced his first serious defeat in 1908, when suits were filed against him for more than $200,000 on promissory notes. Mr. Morse then was abroad and his counsel cabled him to return.

On his arrival here he was arrested and later convicted of having misappropriated the funds of the National Bank of North America. In November, 1908, he was sentenced to 35 years in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta.

Then his wife began a fight for her husband that attracted nationwide interest. Every art known to a loving wife was employed by Mrs. Morse to make her husband a free man. Morse had protested to the end of his trial—and after that he had committed himself to a nearly every business man of his time.

On January 18, 1912, President Taft commuted the banker's sentence on the recommendation of the attorney general, based on a report from the surgeon general of the army which said he would probably not live a month if continued in prison and not more than six months if released.

Mr. Morse, however, upset this prediction. He spent some time abroad recovering his health and in 1916 resumed business in New York by organizing a shipping combine for service with European and South American ports.

In 1920 he again encountered a federal grand jury, being indicted on a charge of having unlawfully sold an American vessel, the John J. McCullough, to the government of Tunis for half a million dollars, without permission of the shipping board. He pleaded not guilty, was released and soon after the indictment was dismissed.

After leaving Bowdoin college, where he showed his business acumen, Mr. Morse soon gained a firm hold on the ice industry, and then began to seek control of various banks. Subsequently, steamship companies came under his control.

German Marks Show Gain

LONDON, December 1. (By the Associated Press.) German marks showed further recovery on the London exchange market today. Heavy buying sent the rate to 750 to the pound sterling, against yesterday's 900. Profit taking sales by speculators who bought at the highest figure caused occasional reactions, but purchases predominated.

The recovery was assisted by optimism regarding the negotiations now proceeding between Dr. Walter Rathenau, former German minister of reconstruction and financial head of the British government, in regard to Germany's forthcoming reparations payments, and the possibility of a moratorium.

Harold Lloyd in "Never Weaken"—Asso. Exhib.—Pathe
Type of production 3 reel comedy

Laugh, scream and laugh some more. Harold Lloyd will throw you into a convulsive fit every time you recover. "Never Weaken" is a knock out. Three reels of roaring comedy, punctuated by screams and hysteria. Will make a sliver quiver like jelly. Will rattle your chandelier. Will cure the blues and knock bad business dead. Don't miss "Never Weaken."

The comedy is all straight stuff but most of it is new. All of it is well done. There is not an idle moment. The effect is both accumulative and accelerative. It piles on richer and stranger. The easy giggle turns to a laugh. It speeds up faster and faster, and the laugh becomes a yell. This is certainly one of the funniest of the year.

The production is built on two main themes. In the first, Harold goes to get patients for an osteopath. Many new stunts are employed. All good and all laughable. Thinking himself jilted, Harold returns to the office and attempts suicide. Finding the poison bitter he adds sugar. But soon abandons this method of destruction for another. Just as he thinks himself dead, a girder, used in the construction of the building opposite, falls into the open window and lifts his chair high above the street. The fun follows along the framework of the building at a dizzy height. Here every moment is a laugh and each slip a scream.

The exhibitor need employ no stunts to put this one over. Show it once and the rest will follow. See that the seats are nailed firmly, then pack them in. Have a supply of safety pins on hand for your women patrons, and offer to return suspender buttons to the men. "Never Weaken" is sure to go big. It will catch on like a house on fire.

1000 EGGS IN EVERY HEN

If You Keep Chickens CUT THIS OUT

The great trouble with the poultry business has always been that the laying life of a hen was too short! says Henry Trafford, International Poultry Expert and Breeder, for nearly eight years Editor of Poultry Success. The average pullet lays 150 eggs. If kept the second year she may lay 100 more, then she goes to market. Yet it has been scientifically established that every pullet is born or hatched with over one thousand minute egg germs in her system—and will lay them on a highly profitable basis over a period of four to six years time if given proper care.

How to work to get 1,000 eggs from every hen; how to get pullets laying early; how to make the old hens lay like pullets; how to keep up heavy egg production all through cold winter months when eggs are highest; triple egg production; make shucker hens bustle; $5.00 profit from every hen in six winter months. These and many other money making poultry secrets are contained in Mr. Trafford's "1,000 EGG HEN" system of poultry raising, one copy free to any reader of this paper who keeps six hens or more. Eggs should go to a dollar or more a dozen this winter. This means big profit to the poultry keeper who gets the eggs. Mr. Trafford tells how. If you keep chickens and want them to make money for you, cut out this ad and send it with your name and address to Henry Trafford, Suite 1005 Court Bldg., Birmingham, S. Y., and a free copy of "The 1,000 EGG HEN" will be sent by registered mail.—Advertisement.

A message received Wednesday night from Sheriff E. E. Nickey, who left two weeks ago for the west, stated that he was leaving for home with Oscar Moore, a former Portsmouth man, who he took into custody at Hanford, Calif.

Moore is being returned here to meet an indictment charging him with obtaining money under false pretenses in connection with a deal involving the transfer of an option for the sale of property owned by Mrs. Catherine Blader, of Tenth and Chillicothe streets. Moore was jointly indicted with Walter P. Yost, former local real estate agent, and the latter was convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary.

Judgment Awarded

Verdict for Defendant

It required but a few minutes for a jury in Common Pleas court Wednesday afternoon to return a verdict for the defendant in the damage suit of Alfred Tipton, Market street against Roy H. Colburn, county auditor.

The automobiles of the parties figured in a collision on Rhodes avenue, New Boston, in September 1920, and Tipton sued to recover $750 for the damage he claimed to have sustained to his car. Each laid the blame in the other for causing the collision and the jury after hearing the testimony evidently reached the conclusion that it was a fifty-fifty proposition and said so through its verdict turned into the court.

BERT LYTELL

The MAN WHO

Bert Lytell, the Popular Metro Star, Comes to The Eastland Theatre Tonight for Three Days in His New Picture, "The Man Who." The Romance of a Barefooted, Barefoot Bid for Fame—Also Showing Jimmie Aubrey in His Latest Bombshell of Joy, "The Applicant."—Don't forget our Matinees Daily—Prices, Adults 20 and Children 10 Cents—Nights, 15 and 30 cents.

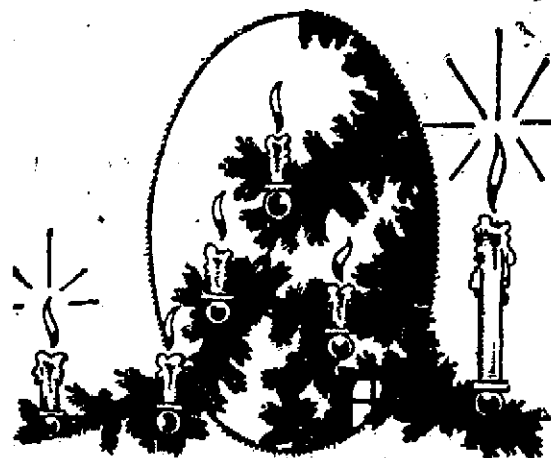

"The Man Who," by Lloyd Osborne, which will be remembered by Saturday Evening Post readers as one of the most delightful stories of many seasons, has been made into a motion picture by Arthur Zeller and will be presented at the Eastland Theatre for three days beginning tonight.

It is a Maxwell Karger production for Metro, starring Bert Lytell in the role of Reddy Mills, the New York bank clerk who tried to become the Man Who Broke the Shoe Trust.

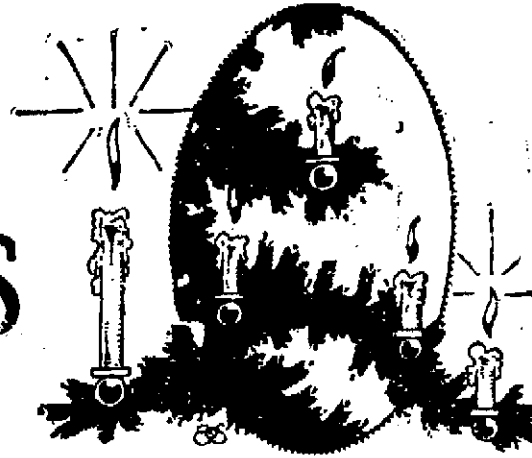

Reddy's ambition to become a Man Who is inspired by his desire to win the favor of Helen Jessop, daughter of an old New York family, who has no use for men who were just "nice and ordinary." So Reddy decides to go about faultlessly dressed, except that his feet are always bare as a protest against the high price of shoes. Going barefoot into exclusive social circles produces amusing complications and inspires a national barefoot campaign.

Bert Lytell's supporting company includes Lucy Cotton, as Helen Jessop; Virginia Valli, as Mary Turner, the shoe magnate's daughter who loves Reddy in spite of everything; Frank Currier, as St. John Jessop, the old New York aristocrat, and Tammany Young, Fred Warren, Clarence J. Elmer, William Roselle, Mary Louise Benton and Frank Strayer in the other roles.

Fandango was derived by the Spaniards from a Moorish dance.

Store Robbed; Arrest Made

IRONTON, Dec. 1.—At about 6:00 o'clock this morning Sheriff Dement was notified that the store of John McClellan, at the foot of New Castle Hill had been burglarized and a quantity of meat, flour, potatoes and candy taken. Deputy Sheriff Matt Wilson and Harold Brummer, who has charge of the blood hounds since the death of Sammy Robinson, proceeded to the scene immediately. The dogs were put on the trail and led the men to the home of Charles Schwab. When almost up to the house, which sits on a high foundation, without underpinning, Deputy Wilson caught sight of a package protruding from under the house, which upon investigation proved to be a box of the missing candy. On inquiring for Schwab, the men were directed over the hill, but caught sight of him on an air dump behind the house, where he stood armed with a shot gun. While his attention was held by Brummer, Deputy Wilson approached Schwab from the rear and disarmed him.

On being brought to Ironton and locked up, Schwab confessed to the robbery and named Wm. Sturgill, who he said assisted him in the robbery. Deputy Wilson, together with Constable Geo. McKee, then returned to New Castle and arrested Sturgill, who was also lodged in the county jail.

Save Money On Street Railway

YOUNGSTOWN, O., December 1.—Economies in operating the municipal street railways here have resulted in savings of about $40,000 a month. Commissioner Sause announced today. Economies include a slight wage reduction and initiation of many one-man safety cars, which have cut expenses, while sale of weekly tickets good for an unlimited number of rides and rounding of cars to do away with the one cent transfer charge are increasing the street car traffic.

Jeff Davis, King of Hoboes, At Sun In Addition to Regular Show

The one big theatrical treat of the season is offered Portsmouth people today, tomorrow and Saturday when Jeff Davis, King of the Hoboes, will appear at the Sun in addition to the regular show of musical comedy and five reel pictures.

Davis is known the world over and is a person all want to see. In Dayton theatres have been packed daily by people anxious to see him also known as the millionaire hobo. Davis arrived here last night and addressed labor men at a joint meeting of Unions.

Besides appearing matinee and night for these three days he will give special children's show Saturday morning at ten o'clock for only ten cents.

The Metropolitan Revue will repeat last night's show tonight and will give an entire change of bill starting tomorrow afternoon.

A five reel feature photoplay will also be shown. Friday afternoon one extra lady will be admitted with each adult ticket purchased. Friday night will be amateur night at the first show.

Through an error the name of J. S. Rapp, Narvon, was omitted from the new telephone directory. The number is 2571 L. Please copy in your directory.

Practically all the Liberty 4½ made new high records at gains of 40 to 80 cents per $100, while foreign war issues, notably French and Belgian government bonds, developed marked heaviness. Call money opened at 5 per cent.

Shorts continued to cover their contracts in rails and oils today. The strength of foreign exchange, further intensive buying of bonds and more favorable industrial conditions encouraged speculative sentiment. Sales approximated 700,000 shares.

OLD-TIME COLD CURE—DRINK TEA!

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of this lambing tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teaspoonful at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold grip once.

It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.—advertisement.

FIERY, ITCHY SKIN QUICKLY SOOTHED WITH SULPHUR

Mouth-Sulphur, a pleasant cream will soothe and heal skin that is irritated or broken out with eczema, that is covered with ugly rash or pimples, or is rough or dry. Nothing soothes fiery skin eruptions so quickly, says a noted skin specialist.

The moment this sulphur preparation is applied the itching stops and after two or three applications, the eczema is gone and the skin is delightfully clear and smooth. Sulphur is so precious as a skin remedy because it destroys the parasites that cause the burning, itching or disfigurement. Mouth-Sulphur always heals eczema right up.

A small jar of Mouth-Sulphur may be had at any good drug store.—advertisement.

He said the post offices throughout the United States employed 326,000 people, and they sell six hundred million dollars worth of stamps in a year, and it costs this amount to run the business. He also told of the value of the post office to the people, and that during the war was the only business that maintained its high standard, it being the largest business in the world. It handles about 100,000,000 letters a day and fifty million parcel post packages a day. Tanks After Return Game With Wellston

IRONTON, Dec. 1.—It is altogether likely that Ironton will again look the Wellston club that held them to a tie contest here and believe that such a game would prove a splendid attraction. Wellston has a strong team as all saw the game Sunday will admit and they know that the Tanks will have to step tucker to win from the heavy upstate eleven, that has great power in its backfield and line as well.

Tanktown Chirps

(Ironton Register)

Poor old Portsmouth. All the towns hereabouts have the number of the old burg. They will have a difficult time next year getting dimes for their football eleven. For visiting teams are fearful of being gyped.

If we were to pick an All-American football eleven this year we would pick the Tanks, that is if the clever sport writers on the Portsmouth papers would agree to use our selection.

THIS IS SETTLED

PITTSFIELD, MASS., Dec. 1.—Walter Hammond, insider of the Pittsfield club of the Eastern League, who has been bought by the Cleveland Americans, led the league in batting last season with an average of .351 for 151 games, according to the official averages announced today.

Thanks, Peter

Need Southpaws

Unless Cleveland and New York are able to secure a dependable left-hander before the opening of the season, the two leaders in 1921 will again be minus a very great asset. Both teams showed the way without a southpaw in 1921, but their road to the top would have been much easier to travel had they been so blessed.

Are Not Through

It was rather strange to pick up the box scores last summer and see where Grover Alexander was knocked out of the box one day and a few days later Walter Johnson was treated to a similar dose. Five or six years ago it was a calamity for such a thing to happen to either of the two great stars. It merely proves, however, that no matter how good you are in any business, there comes a time in your career when you start going the other way. However, Johnson and Alexander are still great pitchers, who are far from through.

IF KIDNEYS ACT BAD TAKE SALTS

Says Backache Is Sign You Have Been Eating Too Much Meat

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells, your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure, and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.

Successful Hunt

Defective Robert Reno and wife and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Scofield, of Waller street, have returned from East Danville, Highland county, where they visited several days with Mr. Reno's parents and other relatives. While there, Reno and Scofield took advantage of the opportunity to hunt and they brought back forty-five rabbits with them.

A Stubborn Cough Loosens Right Up

This home-made remedy is a wonder for quick results. Easily and cheaply made.

Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its heading, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, croup, throat tickle, bronchial asthma or winter coughs.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. If you prefer use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you get a full pint—a family supply—of much better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Keeps perfectly and children love its pleasant taste. Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its prompt healing effect upon the membranes.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Praises Accoustics Of Columbia Theatre

Reinold Werrenrath, after his concert here a short time ago, told members of the committee in charge of the affair that he was astonished at the acoustical properties of the Columbia theatre, where the concert was given. He said that it was the best auditorium he had found in a town of this size. He said that the Columbia would rank with the Carnegie Hall in New York City, and this hall is world-famous for the distinctness with which a speaker or singer can be heard in all parts of the hall. He remarked that the uncarpeted cement floors, and the seats without plush or leather upholstery added to the acoustic perfection of the theatre, as there is nothing on floors or chairs to deaden the sounds.

This is a recommendation from a man who knows and will be of interest to those who contemplate hearing the Zimbalist-Mero concert, which is to be given in a few days. It is hoped, that with a hall of this character in the city, for concerts, that many more concert artists may appear here.

The Benefits From Glasses

Are soon noticed. Many patients experience immediate relief. Others require a week or so to become used to their glasses. But even during this period they are helped greatly. A near-sighted person recognizes the value of his glasses at the first glance through them. Help Prevent Tuberculosis! Buy Christmas Seals!

An army of volunteer health workers in Ohio entered today upon the 14th annual campaign against tuberculosis through the sale of Christmas seals.

Thirty millions of these seals have been distributed among 175 county, city and village agents, the number of seals to each agent ranging from approximately 400 to 4,000,000

The 1921 Christmas seals which are diamond shaped show Santa Claus and two children, representing a school boy and school girl peering out of a chimney. Old Santa has the old fashioned red cheeks, cheery smile on his face and the whole stamp reflects the joy of a Happy Christmas and a Healthy New Year.

The seals will begin appearing on Christmas mail at once and will be very much in evidence from now until Christmas. The proceeds from the sale of these penny seals help to finance the crusade against the white plague in the state and nation. They have been growing in popularity each year and, according to State Chairman James Maddox, the seal sale in Ohio this year is going to break all records. Approximately 20,000,000 seals were sold in Ohio last year.

Portsmouth people bought liberally last year. They will not be found lagging in the purchase of these seals this year. Booths will be stationed at the First National Bank and Marting Bros. Store.

Well, Well, Tank & Will Loosen Up

(Ironout Register)

The Tanks on next Saturday will endeavor to pay off the debt that hangs over the I. H. S. athletic body and money raised over and above the expenses of bringing the Morris-Harvey College team to Ironout and paying the guarantee, will be thrown into the I. H. S. athletic fund. The high school boys and girls will begin at once, a campaign for the sale of tickets and it is believed that their efforts will bring out the greatest crowd that has ever attended a football game in Ironout. It will be a sort of "rehearsal" for the national championship for the high school contestants who appreciate the interest displayed in the school eleven by the Tanks and their followers. There is now a debt of $180 facing the I. H. S. athletic fund.

Frisch Is Not A Brilliant Fielder

(Daily Evans)

The other day some one asked me what I thought of Frankie Frisch of the New York Giants. Most any one would be perfectly safe in answering that Frisch was a wonderful player. I am going to say that much about him, and then a little more.

Frisch is one of the fastest men in the game. He has a wonderful throwing arm. However, he is far from a finished fielder. He seldom handles a ground ball cleanly. He knocks them down, sometimes kicks them around, but his great speed and wonderful arm always save him.

Frisch does practically all his sliding head first. He is one of the few great base runners still using that style. I believe he will be more valuable if he adopts the feet first system, as there is much less chance for injury. Hal Chase was a great ball player who simply could not learn to slide feet first. Possibly Frisch is the same type.

YOST WILL NOT CONSIDER AN EASTERN GAME

ANN ARBOR, MICH., Dec. 1.—Fielding H. Yost, University of Michigan athletic director, who leaves tomorrow for Chicago for the schedule meeting of the "big ten," said today Michigan could not consider a game with an eastern eleven next year, but probably would seek a contest with Vanderbilt or with one of the weaker conference eleven. Michigan faces a heavy schedule next year, with return games with Ohio State and Minnesota and home games with Illinois and Wisconsin.

Hammond And Lady Play With The Tanks

(Frontonian)

Reports from Morris-Harvey show that even the college boys have fear of the Tanks and are taking hard workouts daily. The latest report shows that they consider this game one of their hardest of the season but expect to win. The locals also expect to do this, so the result can only be seen by witnessing the big scrimmage Saturday.

Hammond and Lady will be seen on the local backfield and it is quite likely that these stars, combined with Paule, Proctor, North, Baughn, McKeel and Gierling will give the college men some trouble.

Shannon and King, the two big halfbacks of the West Virginia eleven are the men from whom the Tanks are expecting the greater trouble.

Every Player Should Be There

The Smokehouse team will go through a stiff practice session in York Park tonight. Every player is urged to be present as Wellston has a real team and the Blue and White eleven must be in prime condition to make a good showing against the Coal Barons.

It is up to every player to be on hand at 7 o'clock tonight as excuses and absences will not be accepted. A number of new and old players will be added and thirty minutes will be devoted to passing as if Wellston is beaten it will be over the aerial route.

Tendler vs. Friedman

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—Law Tendler, the Philadelphia lightweight, will meet Seiler Friedman, of Chicago, in a 15 round bout at Madison Square Garden on the night of December 16. It was reported today. The high will weigh in at the recognized lightweight limit, 135 pounds, at two o'clock on the afternoon of the day of the battle.

TO ELECT CAPTAIN

COLUMBUS, Dec. 1.—Election of the 1922 captain of the Ohio State football team and the awarding of letters to men on this year's varsity will be features of an appreciation dinner for the squad to be given tonight by the Chamber of Commerce. About 500 are expected to attend.

NO TEAM BOOKED

BARKLEY, CAL., Dec. 1.—California's champion football team wants to play in an East-West game New Year's day, but as no big eastern eleven seems anxious to journey west, an opponent has not yet been named. Last New Year's day California defeated Ohio State at Pasadena.

San Diego has Centre college, co-sponsor of Harvard, signed for a game, but has no opponent, and there is talk that California may make up the deficiency. There is the Pasadena game, with Iowa, Big Ten champion, considering making the trip. California would prefer Iowa to Centre, as the former is a representative state university.

Yale To Meet Iowa

IOWA CITY, Iowa, Dec. 1.—An offer of a football game with Yale in 1922, just prior to the Princeton game, was received today by athletic officials of Iowa university, champions of the Western Conference this year. The communication from New Haven said the date would be held open for Iowa's decision.

STATE PASSES UP NEBRASKA TILT

COLUMBUS, Dec. 1.—Acceptance of a proposal for a football game between Ohio State and Nebraska, 1921 champion of the Missouri Valley Conference for next year, is not deemed likely by athletic officials at Ohio State. A telegram seeking information regarding a contest was received from the Nebraskans yesterday.

Although next year's schedule has not been arranged, it is understood that it has been tentatively agreed that Ohio State will face the same opponents that were on its schedule this last season.

Faber In Hospital

CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—Urban "Red" Faber, premier pitcher of the Chicago Americans, is convalescing in a hospital here today after an operation for the removal of the internal semicircular cartilage from the right knee.

Faber injured the knee when he slipped while fielding a ball in the recent city exhibition. Surgeons said there was every indication that the operation would be successful.

Bobbi Roth, outfielder with the New York Americans, will undergo a similar operation here next Monday. He injured his right knee during the past season.

Russell Bowlers Roll Here Tonight

Tonight on the Crystal Palace alleys the Crystal Palace Selects will match their skill with a five from Russell, Ky. The Russell team suffered a defeat at the hands of the local bowlers at Russell several weeks ago and tonight they are coming here expecting to gain sweet revenge. Myron Predder in charge of the Crystal Palace alleys and four other good bowlers will battle with the Kentuckians.

Will Shawkey Deliver?

Will Bob Shawkey be able to deliver next year? Certainly Bob didn't look at all impressive in the world series. In a measure the chances of the Yankees to repeat depend on Shawkey's showing.

It is hard to believe that Shawkey is through. He is still a very young man. In the spring of 1921 he looked very ordinary. In mid-season he was great. In the fall he slumped into early spring form.

28 Rounds Of Boxing On Next Monday
"Hi" Fortner and "Nig" Blair To Clash

NIG BLAIR
Who Is To Meet "Hi" Fortner In a Ten Round Go At the Sun Theater Next of Battery B, 134th Field Artillery.
Monday Evening Under the Auspices

Intense interest is being manifested in the boxing bouts to be staged at the Sun theater, next Monday evening, under the auspices of Battery B, 134th Field Artillery. Tickets are selling rapidly and a packed house will no doubt greet the boxers as they face the floodlights.

No bout ever arranged in Portsmouth promises as much excitement as the ten round go between two of the Peerless City's best, "Hi" Fortner and "Nig" Blair. These two boys are evenly matched and a fight worth going miles to see will be staged when these two lightweight get properly oiled up and ready for bang-up action. Both are in training and will be as hard as nails when they enter the ring. Rivalry between them is keen—each believes he has it on the other—neither is afraid to take a wallop and it is predicted that the fur will fly a second after the hand-slashing is over.

Fortner and Blair have been seen in action many times, and they have always given a splendid account of themselves. Blair is a dashing fighter—youthful right in and delivering pile-driving blows that have always brought home victory for him. Fortner, while a heart at lightning, delights in fighting at long range, wearing his opponent down and then putting him over a hay-maker. Blair will have a hard time putting a solid blow on Fortner. The ball-player pugilist is willing to swap punches at any time and his weight will be to his advantage. Blair, on the other hand, wallows with either hand and from any position. Battery B boys are to be congratulated in bringing these two popular boys to the center of the ring.

The promoters announced that they had called the bluff of Joe Brennan of Columbus, who after agreeing to terms tried to hold up the promoters. He was told to remain in Columbus, and the services of Jack Dorsey, Cincinnati scrapper, was secured. He is to mix it up with "Doc" Price for six rounds in the semi-final. In all there will be 28 rounds of fighting, with Hughie Radley as the third man in the ring. Tickets are on sale at the Smoke House, Play House, Henry Roth's and the Crystal Palace. Better get your seats while the getting is good, for there promises to be a capacity house.

The First Presbyterians moved up to within striking distance of the top by taking three from the Trinity Cubs 21-15, 21-14, 21-12, and they may make good their promise when they meet the Faculty next week.

It was an off night for the Cubs, they seemed unable to put their usual teamwork into play. Irving Ross played the best game, making some very pretty plays. Blake starred for the Presbyterians, playing all his positions like a veteran—which he is not. First Presbyterians: Wm. Hopkins, Walter Broadhead and W. Chick. Trinity Cubs: Dr. Hays, captain, J. H. In Olden Days
The Wolf Masqueraded in Sheep's Clothing

Nowadays

"Shoddy" Masquerades As All Sheep's Wool

Both for the Same Purpose—
To Trick the Unwary

"Shoddy" consists of old rags, which some mills card into cloth and call "all wool" to pass it off as "virgin wool."

This "reworked wool"—cannot possibly be as serviceable as "virgin wool" right off the sheep's back. Each reworking shortens its fibers, its life, its strength and lessens its warmth.

We have adopted the new policy this season of requiring from our mills a guarantee that the suitings they weave for us contain no "reworked wool."

These fine, soft fabrics, now on display in our stores, are plainly labelled on the ticket so that you can distinguish them from the "know nots."

In these days, it will pay you to investigate before you buy. Look and learn—See if you can find guaranteed "virgin wool" fabrics tailored to your individual order elsewhere at these low prices—

Today's Sport Angle

In doping out the possible winners in a running race, the experts have their predictions largely on the form that the horses have shown in previous starts, under certain conditions. In baseball form amounts to little or nothing, as far as the individual performer is concerned. Of course, certain teams often stand out as the class of the league. These teams figure to win a majority of games against any kind of opposition and usually do.

In figuring a team's chances to win, the pitching selection must always be given some consideration. Very often pitchers considered the class of the league, invariably find it difficult to beat some tail-end team. For example, we will take the case of Dick Kerr of Chicago. Pitted against the New York club, winner of the American League pennant, Kerr was a bear. The Yankees were beaten almost as soon as he stepped into the box.

Now the Washington club wasn't nearly as hard a hitting aggregation as the Yankees, yet Kerr always had his troubles against the Nationals. As a matter of fact, Dick was lucky to finish a game.

Shocker of the St. Louis club is one of the greatest pitchers in the game. Against most any club in the American League except Detroit, Shocker was always favored to win. In the
